A FRAUD IS EXPOSED

Pomona People Investigate Spiritualism.

A LADY ENTERED THE CABINET

Its Supposed Occupant Absent, Playing the "Departed," Veiled in a Sheet.

POMONA, October 9.—T. A. Wilcox and wife, spiritualits, were exposed last night by Rev. Ada C. Bowles, City Attorney W. A. Bell and other prominent men and women. Mrs. Wilcox occupied a cabinet, and through her audience was brought into communication with the dead and living in person. While one of the "departed" was present, veiled with a sheet, Mrs. Bowles entered the cabinet where Mrs. Wilcox was supposed to be but was not, as she was playing the "departed." Wilcox caught Mrs. Bowles by the throat, pulled her out of the cabinet, choked her and was about to beat her, when City Attorney Bell prevented further violence. Wilcox was at once arrested for assaulting Mrs. Bowles and will be tried by jury. The popular verdict is that the fraud was completely exposed.

A WITNESS CONFESSES.

He Killed a Man While Crazed With Liquor.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., October 9.—Early in the morning of June 18th last Tex Bagwell, a notorious gambler, was shot in the back and killed while going home. His murderer was never discovered, but Frank Lavergne, Omar Harvey and L. D. Joslyn were arrested on complaint of Detective Willis. They demanded separate trials, and Lavergne's trial commenced today. Omar Harvey, one of the defendants, was called as a witness and made a full confession. He is 19 years old. He said that while crazed with liquor he waited in the shadow for Bagwell's approach and killed him with a rifle previously handed him by Lavergne. Harvey said that Lavergne told him he had been offered $2000 by Mrs. Bagwell to put her husband out of the way, and that Lavergne offered him half. He refused to commit the crime until Lavergne made him drunk and thrust the rifle into his hands.

Dynamite Guns for San Francisco.

WASHINGTON, October 9.—The war department is arranging to begin at once the construction of a battery of dynamite guns in San Francisco harbor similar to that in place at Sandy Hook, with the exception that it will consist of three 15-inch guns instead of two 15-inch and one 8 inch guns. The guns will be placed temporarily at Fort Winfield Scott, where a masonry platform has already been prepared, but it is the intention of the department to remove the battery at a future day to Point Diablo.

New York's Third Party.

NEW YORK, October 9.—The third ticket party at a meeting this evening at the offices of E. M. Shepard, decided to nominate the following ticket: Governor, Everett P. Wheeler of New York City; lieutenant governor, Daniel M. Lockwood of Buffalo; judge of the court of appeals, Charles F. Brown of Orange county. Everett P. Wheeler has announced his acceptance of the nomination. Mr. Shepard said that Messrs Brown and Lockwood had also accepted nominations.

A Restraining Suit.

SANTA ROSA, October 9.—Suit was commenced today by C. S. Farquhar and Gill P. Hall, attorneys, against the city council to restrain them from letting a contract for the building of the new municipal water works. The contract was recently let to Robert Effey of Santa Cruz for $161,000, and the suit is based upon the fact that the council's action is in violation of a city statute prohibiting the incurring of debts under certain conditions.

The Word "Wool" Defined.

WASHINGTON, October 9.—The attorney general has rendered an opinion that the word "wool," as used in paragraph 397 of the new tariff act, refers to hair sheep only, and that the new duties under schedule K, upon articles made of the hair of other animals, went immediately into effect on the act taking effect. Customs officers will be governed accordingly. Collectors will reliquidate all entries covering goods classified contrary to above instructions.

Ventura Liquor Licenses.

VENTURA, October 9.—Acting upon the recent decision of the supreme court establishing the right of incorporated towns to control the liquor traffic within their corporate limits regardless of any legislation by boards of county supervisors, the town council has instructed the city attorney to prepare an ordinance fixing liquor licenses at $600 per annum. Heretofore the county has collected $300, and the city a like amount.

The A.P.A. Answered.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., October 9.—The American Protective association sent John L. Sharpstein, Democratic candidate for supreme judge, a copy of its platform with a request for an immediate opinion of each section thereof. Sharpstein answered that he is opposed to prescribing any person by reason of his religious belief and that he is opposed to a diversion of public money for the support of any private school.

Oregon Murderer Confesses.

PORTLAND, Or., October 9.—"Bunco" Kelley has made a full confession to the part he played in the murder of George W. Sayres, whose body was found floating in the river between Ainsworth and Mersey docks last Friday morning. Chief of Police Minto declines to reveal the nature of the confession.

Acting in Harmony.

LONDON, October 9.—The Associated Press learns on the best authority that the European authorities are acting in harmony. They do not intend to permit the integrity of Corea to be disturbed, and will actively enforce this decision should Japan attempt a permanent occupation of the peninsula.

Budd at Red Bluff.

RED BLUFF, October 9.—James H. Budd and party were enthusiastically received here today. They were greeted by a brass band and citizens in carriages. The speeches were well received.

SENTENCE COMMUTED.

A Santa Barbara Murderer Declared Insane by Experts.

SAN QUENTIN, October 9.—Governor Markham has commuted to life imprisonment the sentence of Antone Vital, who was to have been hanged in the penitentiary here on Friday next for the murder of a Chinese washhouse keeper at Santa Barbara. Dr. A. C. Clark, superintendent of the Stockton insane asylum, and Dr. A. M. Gardner, superintendent of the Napa insane asylum, examined the prisoner and both pronounced Vital unquestionably insane. Gardner says he will probably continue insane as long as he lives. In his report to Warden Hale Dr. Gardner declared should the officials carry the execution into effect it would be nothing less than judicial murder. In accordance with the recommendations of the doctors the death sentence has been commuted and Vital will be sent to an insane asylum immediately.

Lumber Destroyed.

TACOMA, Wash., October 9.—The St. Paul and Tacoma Lumber company lost 1000.80 feet of finished lumber today which caught fire in the dry house and was completely destroyed. The mill and valuable machinery narrowly escaped destruction. The loss was $30,000.

Estee at Willows.

WILLOWS, October 9.—M. M. Estee and party arrived here today. The town was crowded with strangers. Special trains were run from Fruto and Orland. Hundreds were unable to gain admission to the hall.

Mine Explosion.

SEATTLE, Wash., October 9.—An explosion occurred in the Newcastle mine this afternoon. One man was killed and two injured, probably fatally.

EXPLANATIONS WANTED.

A Correspondent Asks Questions Concerning the Combine.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—There are rumors, I am sorry to say well founded, that not only packers that do not belong to the association, but also some packers that do belong to it, packers that are not only bound by their $10,000 check, but also by something which should be dearer to them, namely, their honor, are trying to break the combination. Not only is there this contemptible action on the part of these individuals, but the merry grower to some extent is acting the part of the mulu and trying to kick over the traces. Now what I want to ask some of the above named sharks and donkeys is: What good it will do them if they succeed in smashing this combination which is now formed to protect the raisin industry?

It is a fact that the eastern buyers are only holding back because they expect this combination to smash. They know that if it does go to pieces, prices will be a great deal lower than the prices fixed by the combination. Now, if prices go lower, the commission man certainly gets less commission, and the grower gets hardly anything for his labor. Is this the goal the outside packer, the inside dishonest packer and the kicking grower are working for? Why, I ask again, does anybody want to do anything inimical to the association? Why does any man living in our county, and who has to make his living here, try to cut his own throat? I do not comprehend it. I am seeking for information. Why not raise the price of raisins, as long as we compete with Spain, instead of talking about lowering prices? If there should be a predicted rise in prices the Eastern buyer would lay in a stock, but with war rumors in our own ranks, he does not care to risk his money on any article that is not even supported by those mostly interested.

I now call on an honest packer, and I know there are some of them, to expose all that are trying to break our combination, so that those growers who were unfortunate enough to intrust them with the sale of their raisins, may band together and place an injunction against their goods being slaughtered. I am sure if a packer breaks his contract there is a law to make him pay for it, and if, on the other hand, a grower has made a contract with the combination and breaks it, he should be made come to time.

In the interest of our common good, I call for a public explanation by the directors of this, our combination. I call for it so it may give strength to the doubting grower, and put any dishonest packer, if there is such, before the public.

SIG. WORMSER.

ARMSBY DID NOT CUT.

They Steadfastly Uphold Combination Prices.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—Replying to your informant concerning the action of the directors of the Raisin Growers' and Packers' Company yesterday, we have to inform you that they did not pass a resolution "to meet cuts of J. K. Armsby Company" as your paper puts it.

It may be immensely satisfying to some person to attack us through our agents, but we take pleasure in stating to the public that J. K. Armsby Company has been strictly loyal to the combine, and has been careful in all particulars to observe its requirements.

An auctioneer is said to have once struck off an article to a man who did not bid for it, because, as he said, he thought he saw him wink. J. K. Armsby Company have not even winked adversely to the combine, nor has the company which he represents.

We have sought to voice the will of our customers at the sacrifice of many opportunities to sell raisins. We propose to stay with the combine so long as our customers approve its proceedings and our check is up as a guarantee of good faith.

Democrats Condemn Hill.

BROOKLYN, October 9.—Resolutions were adopted tonight by the Brooklyn Democratic club condemning Hill and the present state of the Democratic organization.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

F. H. Hickox Will Build the High School.

MORE PROTESTS ARE ENTERED

Citizens Again Denounce the Action of the Board—Condition of Building Fund.

The board of education met in regular session last night with a full attendance of members. Trustee Hadsell moved and Cummings seconded that they accept the bid of F. H. Hickox of Bakersfield for $46,377 for the construction of the new high school building; the construction to begin at such time as the board selects, and to be completed within eight months from commencement. The motion was carried by the following vote: Ayes, Church, Hadsell, Cummings; no, Eden. Gallagher did not vote. Eden wanted the time for commencing the building definitely settled.

The question of a site for the building was brought up by Thomas E. Hughes. Chairman Church stated that he thought the question had already been definitely settled, but still he did not wish to debar any citizen from speaking before the board.

Mr. Hughes then proceeded, and stated very emphatically that the taxpayers were dissatisfied with the action of the board in placing the city's high school out in the country, as Mr. Hughes expressed it. He closed with the pointed remark that the trustees should look to the wishes of the taxpayers rather than anyone else.

Louis Gundelfinger strongly urged the board to reconsider its action on account of the defective title to the Terry block.

T. C. White stated that when the postoffice was moved it was proved to the United States officials that over one-half of the population of Fresno reside south of Tulare street. Mr. White was opposed to the Terry block.

When Mr. White had finished, the Terry block was championed for the first time before the board by C. H. Robinson and Mayor Firman Church. Mr. Robinson argued that the Terry block was only 400 feet from the Central, and if the Central block is so very near the center of the city, then the Terry block must be as near the center as necessary. He contended that the drainage of the Terry block could easily be made as good as that of the Central. One of the points made was that it would cost $5000 to move the white school building; and now if the board would add $2000 more it could secure a new site, which could easily be beautified and in every way made preferable to the Central block. Mr. Eden questioned Mr. Robinson about the defective title, but the latter gentleman refused to discuss that matter.

Mayor Church claimed that when Belmont addition is joined to the city, then the Terry lock would be at the very center of Fresno. He also contended that public opinion is not against the action of the board. Because five or six personally interested individuals, aided by one or two newspapers, Mr. Church dryly put it, were crying out with undue vigor, the board could not therefore take it as the wish of the people at large.

In response to a question by W. D. Grady, Chairman Church stated that Deputy District Attorney Merriam maintains that the defect in the title could be satisfactorily settled within eight weeks; and this delay was caused by the absence of Porter Ashe, who is in New York.

Mr. Grady expressed himself as thoroughly satisfied with Merriam's opinion.

Trustee Cummings stated that the building could not be finished before the end of the present term anyhow, so the delay of two months is not material.

Secretary Cummings read a report of the financial condition of the building fund. The following were the items of expenditure: Advertising, $74.35; apparatus, $152.10; architect's fees, $288.05; superintending architect's fees, $345; ward building contract, $5843.50; closet contract, $442.86; extra lumber and labor, $28.18; telegrams, $4.65; heating contract, $1770; total, $8928.49.

Bills on the building fund amounting to $1287.94 were passed last night, which included a bill of $1023.19 as architect's fees to G. F. Costerisan. This amount, together with $2087.75 yet due on the ward building, will bring the total amount of expenditures to $12,944.18, leaving a balance of $62,155.82 upon which the high school is to be built and equipped.

Miss Mensing was elected to fill the vacancy in the first grade caused by the promotion of Miss Geis.

The board adjourned to meet next Tuesday evening, when the contract and bonds will be formally signed.

A RESULT OF PROTECTION.

The First National Bank in this place has paid out since September 1st about $110,000 to the sugar beet growers of Chino and the employes of the sugar factory. This sum is for beets delivered at the factory during the month of August and for the wages of the factory employes during the present month. Few people realize the importance of the beet sugar industry to this section of the country and the large amount of money which it puts into circulation here. What would Chino be without her beet fields and her sugar factory? A fertile valley with a few inhabitants and little industrial activity. Think of putting over $110,000 into circulation in a community of the size of Chino in one month, and than consider that operation repeated for several months, and a person can form some conception of the value to Chino and the surrounding country of the beet sugar industry. From $300,000 to $400,000 a year is paid out to the sugar beet growers of Chino and vicinity, and all the neighboring towns feel the benificent effects of it. There is probably no agricultural community in the United States of its size that is making so much money and having so great prosperity as Chino.—Pomona Progress.

The people who believe that it is a a wrong policy to encourage the development of a home industry like that of sugar production, at a slight cost to the taxpayers and a great saving to the consumers of sugar, have a very narrow idea of what should constitute the policy of a government in promoting the material welfare of the country.

With vast bodies of agricultural land furnishing a meager subsistence to farmers engaged in raising wheat and other cereals, what could possibly be more advantageous to the country as a whole than the upbuilding of an industry which would put a portion of this land to a more profitable use, decreasing the output of grain and supplying from our own soil and with our own labor, a commodity now drawn from foreign shores? Leaving out of consideration the local prosperity to be brought about in localities adapted to sugar production, of which Chino furnishes a living example, there can be no question of the general and widespread benefits of a policy which encourages and fosters the production upon our shores of everything to which our soil and climate are adapted, to the full extent, at least, of the capacity of our home market.

No one, certainly, can read of the conditions prevailing at Chino without wishing that other localities might share directly in that prosperity, and without admiting the wisdom of the policy which has brought this industry into existence. Although the policy of the new tariff will be less beneficial to this new industry, and will unavoidably result in increasing the cost of sugar to consumers, even that expensive method of encouragement will not be considered too great a price to pay for the promotion of an industry so full of promise to the agricultural interests of the country, depressed as they are by adverse conditions. What has been done in Chino can be done in Fresno and other localities in California adapted to the production of the sugar beet.

Six months ago Rev. W. H. Martin, pastor of the Christian church of this city, was a very earnest and ardent member of the Populist party. He was not only an advocate of Populist reforms, but was an active participant in the councils of the party and was prominently mentioned as a probable candidate for state senator. Mr. Martin gave a lecture at Easton, in Washington colony, last night, in which he explained very clearly why he had decided to leave that party. Mr. Martin has abandoned the Populist organization for the same reason that scores and hundreds of other intelligent and patriotic men are abandoning it in all parts of the country. It is because its management has fallen into the hands of unscrupulous, self-seeking demagogues, who, for the sake of possible elevation to power, have clasped hands and united their forces with the elements of lawlessness and disorder, and are standing shoulder to shoulder with promoters of hate and treason. Mr. Martin does not believe that useful reforms can be accomplished by a party which in its very inception makes alliances with elements which must be combatted if the government is to be preserved at all, and he therefore proposes to look elsewhere for the accomplishment of reforms which he believes are necessary to better the condition of our people. Mr. Martin is now allied with the Prohibition party.

The Expositor says that Mr. Budd is an exposer of humbugs, and hence, by inference, that it becomes necessary for him to adopt the methods and language of the prize ring and the rat pit. There are a good many Democrats who will not agree with the Expositor in that particular, and many of them, too, who believe that an address from a man who says he is to be the governor could be more profitably devoted to a discussion of principles or an elucidation of the reforms which he promises with much glittering of generalities to effect, than to slangy and virulent criticism of his opponent. Mr. Budd may think he is engaged in exposing humbugs, but that is not all he is exposing. He is exposing his unfitness to be the governor of a state which is entitled to have a chief executive who is too chivalrous and broad-minded to base his claims to preferment on the ground that some one else is unfit to fill the place to which he aspires. Mr. Budd would do much better if he could show that he is fit to be the governor. He has demonstrated to the contrary.

George C. Perkins, the choice of the Republican legislative nominees for United States senator, is a man of independence and character, against whose life-long private and public record in California not an honest word of reproach can be uttered. He has announced himself positively as opposed to the Reilly funding bill, or any other bill to postpone the payment of railroad indebtedness to the government. His candidacy is in striking contrast to that of John P. Irish, the servant of the Southern Pacific, whose candidacy is openly advocated by the Democratic organ of this county, and for whom the attempt was made to pledge a legislative aspirant at the time of the late Democratic county convention.

We publish in this issue a statement from W. H. Hodgkin, president of the Raisin Growers' and Packers' association, which verifies the report in yesterday's Republican regarding the action of the association, but which very strongly contends that the action will promote and not destroy the purpose for which the association was organized. We sincerely hope that such will prove to be the case, although we must confess inability to understand how prices can be maintained by an authorization to meet any and all prices made by outsiders who are supposed to be cutting prices. However, it is possible that those on the inside have a better understanding of the situation, and that great and lasting benefit will yet be derived from the organization.

The Republican has not a word to say against Mr. Budd personally or professionally. He is doubtless a very successful lawyer, but if he is not a pettifogger in politics, and a second rate pettifogger at that, he is leading the public to believe that he is by making stump speeches devoted to coarse criticism of his opponent and high bids for Populist votes.

If Dave Hill should be elected governor of New York, the Cleveland contingent may as well make up their minds that he will be the next nominee of the Democratic party for President.

One of the peculiarities of this campaign is the bitterness with which the collar-wearing press is engaged in denouncing candidates alleged to be in sympathy with the railroad company.

The Valley Road.

Stockton announces through its newspapers that it will do its share in subscribing for stock and building the valley road.

"Stockton is more than ready to join hands with San Francisco," said Mr. Leed's, "and there will be no holding back on the part of her officials and citizens when we show them subscriptions enough to insure a good start on the work. There is not the slightest danger of the United company securing the franchise of the water front, which Stockton controls, as long as the Traffic association is moving with some earnest of intention, but it behooves us to make a showing in the subscription line that will warrant incorporation. As soon as this step is taken it will not be hard to strike a bargain on the franchise question and start aid subscriptions all the way from Stockton to Bakersfield."

PROCLAMATION!

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, SACRAMENTO, August 4, 1894.

Whereas, The Legislature of the State of California, at its thirtieth session, beginning on the second day of January, A. D. 1893, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, proposed the following described amendments to the Constitution of the State of California, to-wit:

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 8.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, amending section one of article two thereof, relative to the right of suffrage.

Section 1. Every native male citizen of the United States, every male person who shall have acquired the rights of citizenship under or by virtue of the Treaty of Queretaro, and every male naturalized citizen thereof, who shall have become such ninety days prior to any election, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been resident of the State one year next preceding the election, and of the county in which he claims his vote ninety days, and in the election precinct thirty days, shall be entitled to vote at all elections which are now or may hereafter be authorized by law; provided, no native of China, no idiot, no insane person, no person convicted of any infamous crime, no person hereafter convicted of the embezzlement or misappropriation of public money, and no person who shall not be able to read the Constitution in the English language and write his name, shall ever exercise the privileges of an elector in this State: provided, that the provisions of this amendment relative to an educational qualification shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions; nor to any person who now has the right to vote; nor to any person who shall be sixty years of age and upwards at the time this amendment shall take effect.

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 14.

A resolution proposing to the people of the State of California an amendment to section three of article eleven of the Constitution of the State of California, relating to the formation of new counties.

Section 3. The Legislature, by general and uniform laws, may provide for the formation of new counties; provided, however, that no new county shall be established which shall reduce any county to a population of less than eight thousand; nor shall a new county be formed containing a less population than five thousand; nor shall any line thereof pass within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided. Every county which shall be enlarged or created from territory taken from any other county or counties, shall be liable for a just proportion of the existing debts and liabilities of the county or counties from which such territory shall be taken.

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 7.

A resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of California, by adding a new section to article thirteen of the said Constitution, to be numbered section twelve and three-fourths (12¾), relating to revenue and taxation.

Section 12¾. Fruit and nut bearing trees under the age of four years from the time of planting in orchard form, and grape vines under the age of three years from the time of planting in vineyard form, shall be exempt from taxation, and nothing in this article shall be construed as subjecting such trees and grape vines to taxation.

AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 12.

A resolution proposing to the people of the State of California an amendment to section seventeen, article one, of the Constitution of the State of California.

Section 17. Foreigners of the white race, or of African descent, eligible to become citizens of the United States under the naturalization laws thereof, while bona fide residents of this State, shall have the same rights in respect to the acquisition, possession, enjoyment, transmission, and inheritance of all property, other than real estate, as native born citizens; provided, that such aliens owning real estate at the time of the adoption of this amendment may remain such owners; and provided further, that the Legislature may, by statute, provide for the disposition of real estate which shall hereafter be acquired by such aliens by descent or devise.

AMENDMENT NUMBER FIVE.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 17.

A resolution proposing to the people of the State of California an amendment to section seven, article eleven, of the Constitution of the State of California.

Section 7. City and County governments may be merged and consolidated into one municipal government, with one set of officers, and may be incorporated under general laws providing for the incorporation and organization of corporations for municipal purposes. The provisions of this Constitution applicable to cities, and also those applicable to counties, so far as not inconsistent or prohibited to cities, shall be applicable to such consolidated government.

AMENDMENT NUMBER SIX.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 7.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, amending section nine of article thirteen thereof, relative to the election of a State Board of Equalization.

Section 9. A State Board of Equalization, consisting of one member from each congressional district in this State, shall be elected by the qualified electors of their respective districts, at the first general election to be held after the adoption of this amendment, and at each general election every four years, whose term of office shall be for four years, whose duty it shall be to equalize the valuation of the taxable property in the several counties of the State for the purposes of taxation. The Controller of State shall be ex officio a member of the Board. The Boards of Supervisors of the several counties of the State shall constitute Boards of Equalization for their respective counties whose duty it shall be to equalize the valuation of the taxable property in the county for the purpose of taxation; provided, such State and County Boards of Equalization are hereby authorized and empowered, under such rules of notice as the County Board may prescribe as to the county assessments, and under such rules of notice as the State Board may prescribe as to the action of the State Board, to increase or lower the entire assessment roll, or any assessment contained therein, so as to equalize the assessment of the property contained in said assessment roll, and make the assessment conform to the true value in money of the property contained in said roll; provided, that no Board of Equalization shall raise any mortgage, deed of trust, contract, or other obligation by which a debt is secured, money, or solvent credits, above its face value. The State Board of Equalization elected in eighteen hundred and ninety four shall continue in office until their successors as herein provided for, shall be elected and shall qualify.

AMENDMENT NUMBER SEVEN.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 16.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to article thirteen of the Constitution, section one, in relation to revenue and taxation.

Section 1. All property in the State, not exempt under the laws of the United States, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as provided by law. The word "property," as used in this article and section, is hereby declared to include moneys, credits, bonds, stocks, dues, franchises, and all other matters and things, real, personal, and mixed, capable of private ownership: provided, that property used for free public libraries and free museums, growing crops, property used exclusively for public schools, and such as may belong to the United States, this State, or to any county or municipal corporation within this State, shall be exempt from taxation. The Legislature may provide, except in case of credits secured by mortgage or trust deed, for a reduction from credits of debts due to bona fide residents of this State.

AMENDMENT NUMBER EIGHT.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 31.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to section seven (7) of article nine (IX) of the Constitution of the State of California, by increasing the number of members constituting the State Board of Education, by adding thereto the President and Professor of Pedagogics of the University of California.

Section 7. The Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the President of the University of California, and the Professor of Pedagogy therein, and the Principals of the State Normal Schools, shall constitute the State Board of Education, and shall compile, or cause to be compiled, and adopt a uniform series of textbooks for use in the common schools throughout the State. The State Board may cause such textbooks, when adopted, to be printed and published by the Superintendent of State Printing, at the State Printing Office, and when so printed and published, to be distributed and sold at the cost price of printing, publishing, and distributing the same. The text-books so adopted shall continue in use not less than four years; and said State Board shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall provide for a Board of Education in each county in the State. The County Superintendents and the County Boards of Education shall have control of the examination of teachers and the granting of teachers' certificates within their respective jurisdictions.

AMENDMENT NUMBER NINE.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO.

An Act to submit to the people of the State of California an amendment to section twenty-three of article four of the Constitution of the State of California.

Section 23. POPULISTS ABANDONED

NO SYMPATHY WITH ANARCHY

The People of Easton Turn Out in Force to Hear the Arraignment.

The public hall at Easton was probably never so nearly filled as last night, when the people flocked to hear the Rev. W. H. Martin of this city discuss Prohibition issues whith special reference to the People's Party. There were a number of Populists in the audience, but they took their medicine without a murmur. It was strong medicine, too.

George Washington Wyllie, chairman of the Prohibition central committee, presided. Previous to the speeches musical selections were contributed by the Easton brass band, by a local chorus of vocalists, and by the Fresno Male quartet, G. W. Wyllie, F. J. Hall, T. C. Elliott and W. W. Wharton.

Rev. Mr. Martin, after apologizing for a very obvious hoarseness, plunged into his theme of the relations of Populism and Prohibition with very little hesitation or introduction. As Mr. Martin was prominently mentioned as a candidate for state senator in the Populist convention, his revelations of the true inwardness of that convention came from one who knew whereof he spoke, and the Populists followed him with manifest anxiety, especially when he was applauded, as frequently happened. It was a mixed audience, the representatives of the four parties being probably about equally represented.

Mr. Martin explained his position by saying that for twelve years he had adhered to the cause of prohibition. He took part in the Populist convention because the denunciation by the Populists of the oppression of the masses of the people by the money power enlisted his sympathy. These feelings are still in his breast, but he explained at the time that he took part in the convention that he would never surrender his freedom as a man. There were two things in which the Populists had disappointed him. One was in the case of men they have shown a disposition to court; men like Coxey and the train wrecker Knox. He charged the Populists with cowardice, in falling to deal with the liquor question in their convention for fear of losing votes. He further objected to the rank political trickery shown in the convention.

The speaker said he utterly failed to understand with what consistency the Populists could advocate anarchy, as evinced by their espousal of the cause of such men as Coxey and Knox. He knew that even intelligent men sometimes confounded socialism and anarchy, much as these terms differed in application, but he claimed that if there is anything in the world to which Populism, as he understood the word, is opposed, it is anarchy. Populism, or association, aims at extending government control; anarchy means the overthrow of all government. He gave it as his opinion that the banking system of the country should be in the hands of the government and that the "uncurred increment," as shown in the case of men growing suddenly rich by selling town lots, should be restored to the people.

He said that to compare Populism with anarchy was like comparing light with darkness, yet Populists have invited the comparison by espousing the cause of anarchists and even indorsing them for office, as in the case of Knox, who has been nominated for sheriff of Yolo county at Woodland.

After referring at some length to the evils of the liquor habit, and the necessity of repressive legislation Mr. Martin claimed that one Populist, when asked why they did not make liquor prohibition a plank in the platform, replied that if they did they would not get two votes in the county, but they would demand it to the people. Thus they wanted to gain the appearance of men opposed to prohibition while wanting to catch the Prohibition vote. "There are no true reformers," said Mr. Martin, "in men of that class. The men who make reformations are down on all species of corruption, and it is admitted that the liquor business is the most corrupt and depraved thing on earth."

If the issue were one involving mere choice between the principles of Populism and Prohibition he would for the present take the part of the Prohibitionists. But he intended to vote for a few men on the Populist ticket who seemed to represent the best side. But he wanted it clearly understood that he would never vote what is vulgarly called a "yellow dog" ticket. In advocating the cause of Prohibition he was not abandoning the principles of Populism. The platform of the Prohibitionists contains all the fundamental and valuable principles of Populism. In being a Prohibitionist he was still a Populist and something more.

Mr. Martin concluded with a warm endorsement of Mr. Butler's candidacy in the fourth supervisoral district, as based on his record in the saloon case.

The meeting was afterwards briefly addressed by Mrs. Leila Karlin Moore of the Temperance Union and closed with a postlude by the band.

GRADING THE RAISINS.

Rules Which Inspectors Will Strictly Enforce.

A circular letter has been sent out by Raisin Inspector T. C. White, laying down rules for sorting and inspecting raisins under the authority of the State of California Raisin Growers' and Packers' company. Growers as well as packers will find something of interest in these rules:

All three and four-crown grades, having an excess of under cured berries, must be sorted over and the said under cured berries removed therefrom.

The two-crown grade having an excess of sour, burned berries, produced by being picked too green, should be run through the grader a second time, so as to separate the burned berries from those which are otherwise in prime condition.

All seedless muscatells must be run through the grader a second time, so as to separate all trash and large seeded berries therefrom.

All grades having an excess of over cured berries must be boxed, or sacked, and branded as loose Muscatells.

All boxes, sacks, barrels or packages of any description must bear the crowns corresponding to their respective grades.

Malagas may be put up as Malagas or loose Muscatells, but no Malagas to be put up in layers, and none higher than three-crown.

Fiah Zagos can only be put up as two-crown loose.

All raisins damaged by rain, or having dirt or sand on them which cannot be removed by the stemmer, must be graded as loose Muscatells and not stamped by the inspector.

The foregoing rules must be strictly complied with and the proprietor or manager of any packing houses refusing or neglecting to comply with the foregoing rules, the inspector of such packing house is directed to report the same at once to T. C. White.

A Young Mail Carrier.

The United States mail is carried from Toll House to Burrough valley on horseback by Miss Minerva Eversoll, 17 years of age. The route is not a long one, only five miles, but in the winter, when the days are short, the whole trip must be made after dark, and the young lady exhibits no small heroism to make the journey through the woods and over the hills, where Indians are as plentiful as deer. It is said that she is an excellent shot with a revolver, and always goes prepared to defend the mail or protect herself on all occasions.

Fresno is Ahead.

It is not often that one sees a solid bunch of raisin grapes weighing six pounds. Such a bunch was brought to our office yesterday by G. W. Pressy. He has eight acres in this grape, from which he is now making some excellent wine.—Porterville Enterprise.

That is a big bunch of grapes, but bunches have been produced this year in some of the Fresno vineyards two or three pounds heavier. It is pretty hard to get ahead of Fresno.

The days for registering are few, and those who neglect to see that their names are properly on the list, can blame only themselves if they find themselves left out. The time closes October 20th.

SUPERIOR COURT NOTES.

Business Transacted in the Several Departments.

The following business was transacted in the several departments of the superior court yesterday:

BEFORE JUDGE WEBB, DEPARTMENT 3.

In the case of Adam Brown against Frank M. Burkholn; judgment for $569.25 and $50 attorney fee was given the plaintiff.

The San Joaquin Lumber company was given judgment as prayed for against C. W. Smith and others, also for $50 attorney fee.

JUDGE WEBB FOR JUDGE HOLMES, DEPARTMENT 1.

Judgment with $50 attorney fee was given the plaintiff in the suit of the Puget Sound Lumber Co. against Thomas J. McQuiddy.

Judgment as prayed for with $120 attorney fee was given the plaintiff in the suit of the Fresno Loan and Savings bank against S. G. Boyd and others.

THE SUPERVISORS.

They Appoint Precinct Officers for the November Election.

The supervisors consumed the greater part of yesterday in appointing precinct election officers.

The proposition of the Fresno Gas and Electric Light Company to furnish four arc lights for the ensuing year at $10 per light per month was accepted.

The proposition of the Fresno Water Company to furnish water for the court house grounds at the figure of the previous year was accepted.

The vault door in the old wing of the court house was sold to George Malter for $75. It cost about $250. The law requires such sales to be advertised.

The consideration of license petitions was deferred till today, the tax collector's clerk not being ready with the list.

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old

I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."

A World's Tribute.

America Leads the Nations in the March of Progress.

Among the wonders of the World's Columbian Fair the grandest was the exhibit of American products. The Exhibition was, in this respect, an object lesson of the grandeur and glory of the Republic. Among the exhibits from the United States no article of its class stood so high as

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

The Chief Chemist of the Agricultural Department at Washington, backed by an intelligent jury at the Exposition, found it strongest in leavening power, peerless in its purity and beyond comparison in uniform excellence.

Received Highest Award At the World's Fair.

The award is a matter of official record.

Nothing could settle so decisively the immeasureable superiority of Dr. Price's over all other powders as the great honor bestowed at Chicago.

Worthless Hobos.

Last evening on I street three worthless hobos stationed themselves to get money from passers-by. One of them stopped a lady and asked her for money. He was impudent and persistent in his demands. She was frightened, and told him she had no money. He was not willing to give it up, and repeated his demand in an insolent and threatening manner. The street contained comparatively few persons at the time; but a man saw the hobo squared up in front of the lady and started toward him, whereupon the villain took to his heels.

Shortly afterwards he and his two accomplices asked a man for money, and upon being refused, they struck him. The names of the parties could not be learned. The three vagrants are described as hard-looking cases, and probably only recently came to town; for the police have been keeping the streets pretty clear of these loafing criminals.

The Kings' Daughters of the K-street Methodist church will give a series of luncheon during the week of the county teachers' institute.

HE PAINTS,

And Does It So as to Attract Attention.

We have in Fresno a man who paints wagons, carriages and buggies in such a way that a vehicle, when turned out of his shop, is sure to attract the admiring attention of all who see it. He painted Hose Company No. 1's wagon which is the pride of the fire boys. He painted THE REPUBLICAN rig, and the once shabby affair now looks as shining and bright as a new silver dollar. He painted many other business wagons and private carriages, and the rigs in town certainly look better and brighter since he came to town and began painting everything on wheels. J. B. Harrington, corner Kern and L streets, is the painter referred to, and if you want a job done in good style and at a reasonable price, send your rig to him.

HAPPILY REUNITED.

ATTORNEY COLDWELL MARRIES HIS DIVORCED WIFE

They Had Been Separated Only Two Weeks—The Parties Congratulated by Friends.

Truth is stronger than fiction, and one of those episodes which sometimes set a community to wondering what will happen next took place in Fresno last evening.

N. C. Coldwell, a well-known attorney of this city, was remarried last night to Ellen R. Coldwell, from whom he had been divorced only two weeks ago by Judge Harris. It is unnecessary, and indeed undesirable, under the circumstances, to make more than the necessary reference to the grounds on which the decree was granted. Judgment was given by default, as the defendant did not appear.

It is a far more pleasing task to record the circumstances under which the reunion was effected. When a couple between whom there is no actual incompatibility and who retain their affection for each other, happen to have children as well, the strain of divorce is apt to be keenly felt. In the present instance Mr. Coldwell was, within the knowledge of his intimate friends, a most unhappy man. His life had been marred five years ago by his name being unjustly associated with that of Mrs. Sarah Althea Terry, a woman whose mission on earth seemed to be to cause misery in the homes of men. When the decree of divorce was pronounced Mr. Coldwell felt that he had drained the cup of bitterness to the dregs.

In such a case the task of reuniting these sundered hearts was not a difficult one. Mutual friends did the part of good Samaritans, and last evening a very small party assembled in the private parlor of Emanuel Baptist church, when the pastor, Rev. H. B. Turner, reunited Mr. and Mrs. Coldwell. It will be the wish of all their fellow townspeople that, in the words of the old romances, "they may live happily together forever afterwards."

RAISIN SITUATION.

Letter From President Hodgkin on the Subject.

The following letter is from W. H. Hodgkin, president of the Raisin Growers' and Packers' Company, on the raisin situation, and relates especially to the article in yesterday morning's REPUBLICAN concerning the resolution passed by the board of directors authorizing packers to meet outside prices. The letter is as follows:

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—THE REPUBLICAN yesterday morning states that the compact is broken, and bases its argument on a mistaken view of the course taken by the directors yesterday. It seems through some oversight the reporter did not obtain an accurate report of what was done at yesterday's meeting, and still more important, why it was done.

The directors of the State of California Raisin Growers' and Packers' Company, whilst feeling it was for the best interests of the company not to have reporters present at their meetings, have always wished to give the papers any information that could be of advantage to the stockholders of the company. We have nothing to do with giving information which may be used to our disadvantage to any outside growers or packers.

The facts of the case are simply these. We have felt all along that we were strong enough to fight Cutting & Co., Williams, Brown & Co., or any other outside element. But when the Producers' Packing Company of 150 growers whose president, Mr. Kelly, has from the first been one of our strongest supporters, withdrew, directly their certified checks were called for, and it was found that other warm adherents of the combine before the public were privately stabbing it in the dark, and were taking their raisins away from packers in the company and selling them to outsiders, it became necessary to take decisive steps.

The board has not lowered any prices. On the contrary, it maintains them; and in one case raised them 10 cents a box, and propose to raise them further at their next meeting. What was done at yesterday's meeting besides this was to allow packers to guarantee prices against the Producers' Packing Co., Williams, Brown & Co., Cutting & Co., Carver, Williams & Co., etc. This does not necessarily mean lower prices, but simply that our shareholders shall not be obliged to sit still and see outside goods sold whilst we hold the umbrella.

Our original plan foresaw some such course might be necessary and provided for it in its bylaws. By taking the course we did yesterday our members are enabled to fight the outsiders on their own ground, and we believe finally beat them.

If any grower has any fault to find let him put the blame where it belongs, not on the packers, but on the Producers' Packing Company, and those other recreant growers who have gone back on their word and their undertaking.

We would further state that, so far from the compact being broken, it is more strongly bound than ever. Prices on all the higher grades are absolutely maintained, and must be sold at f.o.b. prices. Besides, all must be inspected by our inspector, thereby giving our goods a guaranteed value which no outsiders can possibly obtain.

The packers' guaranteed checks are all in our hands as an earnest of their good faith, which, in spite of all rumors to the contrary, we have found, after the closest investigation, has never been broken. They have lived up strictly to the letter of their agreement with us, and deserve the thanks and gratitude of every grower for so doing.

W. H. HODGKIN, President;
J. M. COLLIER,
Secretary of State of California Raisin Growers' and Packers' Company.

NOT ALWAYS BAD.

The Mortgage, Intelligently Used, May be a Benefit.

From The Tulare Register.

A mortgage is not necessarily a worker of evil. Whether good or bad depends upon the individual and his circumstances. There are some overstocked with mortgages just as there are some overstocked with goods, or too many horses or too much land. In such a case a mortgage is a burden. Nor is the mortgage indebtedness an infallible guide in judging of the prosperity of a community. One man may have 4,000 acres of land entirely clear of incumbrance, lying idle, benefiting nobody. He may subdivide it and sell it in 40-acre tracts to 100 men, each of whom pays a part and gives a mortgage for the balance. There are 100 mortgages on record where there was none before, but nobody is the poorer if business judgment has been used and these buyers assume no heavier load than they can carry. It may indeed be a gain all around. They gain homes for which they could not pay spot cash; the seller has money which he can use more profitably than he did the land, and the community gains by use of the land and improvements. Yet there are men who would see nothing but an "increase of mortgage indebtedness," and argue that the country was going to ruin on a gallop. No one is well situated who has a white elephant on his hands, be it a mortgage or something else; yet it has come to be a political trick to use the mortgage to give men the shivers and scare children to sleep.

AN EVENING PARTY.

Mrs. S. W. Morton Entertains Many of Her Friends.

Mrs. S. W. Morton on last evening gave a surprise party to Mrs. T. Barrett and incidentally a farewell party to H. Lanz, who is about to leave Fresno.

The spacious parlors were thrown open and a delightful evening was enjoyed by all present. The Fresno Quintet club discoursed sweet music from the alcove.

Games and social converse occupied the time until a late hour, when a luch was served.

The members of the Kobekah Lodge presented Brother Lanz with an engraved silver match safe.

As Mr. Lanz is a benedict, the present suggests that the ladies would have Brother Lanz understand that matches are perfectly safe, and it is greatly to be hoped that the brethren will take heart. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Waves, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. D. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Mawhine, Mr. and Mrs. F. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Drew, Mrs. E. Barris of Traver, Mrs. McMullon, Mrs. Greeley, Mrs. Hinkle, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. H. Englebright, Mrs. Schintler, Mrs. Kaiser, Mr. Barnaby; Misses Morgan, Knobloch, Kaiser, Freeland, Ford, Barnaby, Barrett, McNab, Decker; Messrs. Lane, Kate, Holden, Naher, Greeley, Urmy, Hefner.

JOSEPH SPINNEY'S CASE.

His Troubles With the Odd Fellows Come to a Crisis.

The hearing of the charges of detainer against F. E. Wing and J. B. Livesay by the Central California Lodge of Odd Fellows, commenced in Judge Crichton's court yesterday. Frank H. Short appeared for the Odd Fellows lodge and L. L. Cory for the defendants. The latter were put in possession of the Fraternal hall in the Spinney block by Joseph Spinney, who wished in this way to assert rights of ownership.

A jury trial was demanded and the entire afternoon was spent in the attempt without success. No end of fun was had out of the questions addressed to the jurors, each of whom was asked if he knew Mr. Spinney.

When there seemed to be a chance of making up the panel it was found that in some way three Odd Fellows had gotten on the jury. An objection was raised, which Judge Crichton promptly allowed, and the jurors were excused. T. A. Bell was excused from service at his own request, he being a Knight of Pythias, and naturally interested in the rights of fraternal societies in cases like the present.

Failing to secure a jury, and the venire being exhausted, a special venire was called for today.

Equipped For Accidents.

The summer girl of this season sets out on her travels with something entirely new. Her pet hammock, her tennis racket, her saloon oars, and all the other pleasure paraphernalia may be stowed into the baggage wagon, but this "something new" will never be let pass from her keeping any more than her cardcase or her pocketbook. It is the new black tin case of the New York Society For First Aid to the Injured, which has its offices in the United Charities building, at Fourth avenue and Twenty-second street. All the young women who have had lessons during the winter and on examination have won the right to wear the red cross badge of the society are hastening to equip themselves with the tin case to carry with them on their travels.

It contains everything necessary to afford relief and avert danger until a doctor can be summoned, and when it is remembered that all its possessors are thoroughly posted in the matter of primary dealing with broken bones or arteries or the distinction between a fainting fit, sunstroke or apoplexy, the sight of that little black case with the red cross on far off coast or camping ground will often be blessed this summer. Within are lint, triangular and roller bandages, splints, antiseptic tablets and absorbent cotton, with boracic acid, ipecac and ammonia, in bottles fitted in neat leather cases, and all in sufficient quantity to cover more accidents in a small colony than it is to be hoped will happen."

Footpads at Work.

About 9 o'clock last night three footpads stopped a man near the Grangers' warehouse and demanded money. He had none, and they gave him a beating and then choked him to stop his yells. They made off and were not caught. The name of the man held up was not learned.

Toll House Republicans.

Judge Galloway of Oleander, Republican nominee for coroner, addressed a large meeting at Toll House Monday evening. That part of the country was always heretofore one of the "slow districts" for the Republicans, but indications now point out a probable change, and that it will roll up a bigger vote for the party of progress than ever before. In fact, it is said that there is only one Democrat left there, all the others having joined the Populists or Republicans. This may be an erroneous estimate, however.

Green Goods Agents Out.

A Mexican resident from the Cantua country was in Fresno yesterday to do business with a "green goods" man. He had received one of the numerous letters sent out offering inducements to deal in the "queer." A friend, however, induced him to desist from his foolhardy freak, and this morning he went home a much wiser man.
